

Question 1: Which motorsport governing body introduced the regulations for Group B rally?

- A) Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme (FIM)
- B) Fédération Internationale de l'Automobile (FIA)
- C) World Rally Championship (WRC)
- D) Formula One (F1)

Correct Answer: B

Question 2: In what year did Group B rallying officially begin?

- A) 1980
- B) 1981
- C) 1982
- D) 1986

Correct Answer: C

Question 3: Which car manufacturer introduced all-wheel drive to the world of rallying?

- A) Peugeot
- B) Lancia
- C) Audi
- D) MG

Correct Answer: C

Question 4: Who was the first woman to win a World Rally Championship event?

- A) Stig Blomqvist
- B) Hannu Mikkola
- C) Michèle Mouton
- D) Ari Vatanen

Correct Answer: C

Question 5: Which Peugeot driver's performance in the 1985 Rallye Côte d'Ivoire is considered a memorable Group B moment?

- A) Didier Auriol
- B) Ari Vatanen
- C) Walter Röhrl
- D) Markku Alén

Correct Answer: B

Question 6: What unique charging system did the Lancia Delta S4 utilize?

- A) Turbocharging only
- B) Supercharging only
- C) Twin-charging (both turbocharging and supercharging)
- D) Electric charging

Correct Answer: C

Question 7: Which British manufacturer participated in Group B with the Metro 6R4, albeit with limited success?

- A) Ford
- B) MG
- C) Jaguar
- D) Aston Martin

Correct Answer: B

Question 8: Besides engine power, what other characteristic made Group B cars challenging to drive?

- A) Heavy weight
- B) Poor handling
- C) Lightweight design

D) Lack of technological advancements

Correct Answer: C

Question 9: Which tragic event in 1986 significantly contributed to the end of Group B?

A) The death of Joaquim Santos

B) The death of Henri Toivonen and Sergio Cresto

C) A spectator fatality at Rally Portugal

D) Multiple mechanical failures at Rallye de France

Correct Answer: B

Question 10: In what year did the Group B era officially conclude?

A) 1985

B) 1986

C) 1987

D) 1990

Correct Answer: B